If the camper is younger than 18 years of age or legally incapable of handling their own affairs, this form must be completed by a parent/legal guardian.

The camper wishes to participate in the Rehoboth Camp Ministry. As a condition thereof, the camper or guardian and trustee agrees to the following:

1. A variety of activities will be offered in the camp program, and some of them may present stresses and hazards that are unforeseeable. The camper assumes all ordinary risks involved in participating in these activities and agrees that Rehoboth Christian Ministries, its representatives, and any persons conducting the activities will not be responsible for any damages or injuries to the camper in the absence of evidence of gross negligence.
2. Rehoboth Camp Ministry staff reserve the right to dismiss the camper from further participation in the camp program if he/she is deemed unsuitable for this type of camping experience as follows:
 - a) Campers will demonstrate respect toward themselves, volunteers and staff.
 - b) Campers whose behaviour demonstrates risk for injury toward themselves or others will be asked to leave the camp should it occur more than 1 instance within the camp week. Additionally, if a camper's risk behaviour causes injury and the volunteer expresses discomfort with supporting that camper, the camper will be dismissed for their camp week, at the discretion of the Camp Program Manager, in consultation with the Volunteer Directors.
 - c) If a camper's risk behaviour caused injury that results in medical attention, that camper will not be accepted to further camp weeks.
 - d) If a camper's risk behaviour causes injury that does not need medical attention or no injury, the camper will be accepted into further camp weeks unless three consecutive dismissals have occurred.
 - e) The camper and/or the parent/legal trustee will be responsible for any additional transportation costs resulting from such a dismissal.

3. The applicant releases Rehoboth Christian Ministries and its representatives from all liability for personal injury resulting from:
 - a) any participants failure to obey, to the best of their ability, the safety regulations and directions while at camp. These include following COVID-19 health protocols as mandated by the Government of Alberta to the best of the camper's abilities.
 - b) the exercise of judgment made in good faith in response to emergencies that may occur.
 - c) unanticipated risk behaviors managed using non-violent crisis intervention techniques (NVCi) as trained which focuses on the least intrusive measures in the absence of evidence of gross negligence.
4. Rehoboth Christian Ministries and its representative will not be liable for loss of, or damage to, the camper's personal property in the absence of willful misconduct by them.
5. Any medical costs incurred by the camper will be their sole responsibility, or the parent/legal trustee.
6. The camper or the parent/legal trustee will be liable for damages to property or facilities of Rehoboth Christian Ministries that result from the camper's action.
7. A Rehoboth employee provides medical support (medication administration and first aid) for the camp program. The camper agrees this is sufficient coverage to meet their medical needs.
8. The RN will authorize any emergency medical and/or hospital care for the applicant. The Emergency Contact person named in the camper's application will be notified as soon as possible in the event of any emergency.
9. Rehoboth Christian Ministries will make all attempts to place a camper in their specified week, however, situations may arise where the camper will be placed in an alternate week than applied for. In such cases, the camper and/or guardian will be notified, in writing, by the Camp Manager.
10. Rehoboth Christian Ministries may reject any applicant should all required documents fail to be completed.
